

Dublin Food Producer Showcase

Dublin Food Chain is a marketing and networking group which helps link trade buyers and Dublin's food producer community. Dublin food chain is a partnership between the Dublin Local Enterprise Offices and Bord Bia. Following on from the success of last year's producer showcase, we are delighted to announce this year's producer showcase event which will take place on April 20th Merrion and O'Connell suites, Red Cow Hotel, where up to 40 Dublin producers will showcase their products. As well as established producers, some brand new food entrepreneurs will also be exhibiting. This will be an ideal event for you to find new innovative products for your range.

Woof Stuff

Woof Stuff was conceived in 2015 when we began creating dog treats in our home kitchen. The idea began when Marc rescued a dog, at 8 weeks old from the side of a busy road. Zuomo grew up with us and always loved our home baking. Woof Stuff has been created for the love of dogs based on Zuomo's response to oven aromas. Our dog treats' unique selling point is that they are low fat and made with cereals, fruit and vegetables, free from animal by-products.

Woof Stuff was awarded Finalist Agribusiness of the Year- Emerging 2016.
