Espumante Bruto
Natural 2015 DOC
Bucelas

Very fine bubbles and flavors conjugated of abundant fresh fruit and note of the stage. Body well balanced and great elegance.

Great potential for aging.

Wine for festivities, ideal for all kind of delicate cuisine, exotic spicy cuisine, and great dessert.

A great Espumante “blanc de Blanc”, classified Top Espumante by Portuguese Critics.

TASTING NOTES

Rich aromatic profile conveying minerality and freshness in contrast with tropical fruit, melted butter and well framed wood deriving from the barrels where the wine fermented; the palate brings good volume and unctuousity, reminiscent of Burgundy wine in all its lively freshness. A long finish with quality fruit shows promise of good evolution. 13% alcohol

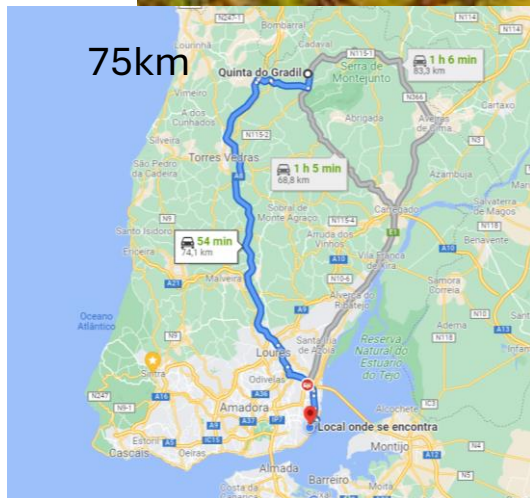

Around € 12,-

Quinta da Casa Amarela Elísio 2016

Bright deep ruby colour with intense notes of toasted oak barrels. Very rich and structured, pronounced aromatic nature with hints of cherry, blackberry, cassis, plum, licorice, mingled with spices and chocolate. Balanced with pleasant acidity and well integrated alcohol. Long fine and velvety finish. High potential for aging.

Blend of 3 grapes: Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca and Tinta Roriz

A perfect match for deer, lamb or game and
For the traditional Cabrito asado
Aprox € 25,-

Quinta Casa Amarela 10 years Tawny Port

During aging in wood, the ruby colour turns brown and the wine gains dry fruits (almond, fig, nuts) and spicy aromas from the oak. Powerful, purity and clear, maturity and finesse aromas. Has a wonderful chocolate and dried fruits flavour; exotic resins. A good length in the mouth, a long aftertaste. Overall, complex, harmonious and fresh finish.
