13TH LIABILITY SEMINAR

Liability, insurance, passenger rights, litigation and litigation financing in the air transport industry

Berlin | 3rd February 2023
Steigenberger Hotel at Berlin Airport

EUROPEAN AIR LAW ASSOCIATION (EALA)

13TH LIABILITY SEMINAR

EALA is pleased to invite you to attend its 13th Liability Seminar which will be held at the Steigenberger Airport Hotel Berlin.

Ever since the series of Munich Liability Seminars was started by EALA in 1997 liability developments and claims handling in the air transport and aerospace industries were the focus of these conferences, presented and discussed by leading experts and prominent moderators.

This year the Liability Seminar will be held at the new Berlin Brandenburg Airport (BER) which is named after Willy Brandt. The venue for the conference is the Steigenberger Airport Hotel Berlin, a few steps away from the gates at the Berlin Airport. A conference dinner will be held in the evening of 2nd February 2023 in the revolving restaurant of the Berlin TV Tower, 200m above the city centre of Germany's vibrant capital.

The 13th Liability Seminar will again cover a wide range of topical issues:

- Regulation 261/2004: This panel will provide an update on the efforts to amend the Regulation, litigation involving Reg. 261/2004 and the issue of whether the Regulation applies to business a/c charter operators.
- A presentation will discuss the online enforcement of passenger rights concerning unused fees and taxes in case of voluntary cancellations of flights by passengers
- The liability exposure of aircraft lessors will be examined.
- An innovative approach to litigation financing will be the topic of a presentation discussing the opportunities for potential plaintiffs to find providers of funding through an online platform.
- One panel will deal with operational challenges for airports, airlines and their cockpit crews both during and after the pandemic and the resulting liability exposure and litigation.
- The current status of civil aviation in the Ukraine will be discussed by a Ukrainian expert.
- Insurance claims by a/c lessors resulting from leased aircraft having been stranded in Russia as a consequence of the sanctions imposed on Russia and Russian law allowing the re-registration of these a/c in Russia will be the focus of another session.
- To enable the Courts to continue operating during the pandemic, there was an increased use of video conferencing facilities ('VCF') to allow parties to attend proceedings remotely. These developments that may continue in the future will be analysed by one panel.
- The final panel concluding the 13th Liability Seminar will address liability and claims handling developments that are of particularly great significance for the aviation industry.

We invite all aviation lawyers, airline, insurance and re-insurance industry, aircraft finance, airport and aerospace industry representatives as well as government officials and academics to join us for this comprehensive programme.

The one-day format and the timing of the very successful first twelve liability seminars have been retained in order to allow the delegates to travel to and from Berlin the same day from most places in Europe and to attend the conference without having to leave the airport grounds.

The venue of the Liability Seminar will be the new Steigenberger Airport Hotel Berlin, a few steps away from the gates of Berlin Airport.

You are cordially invited to attend the conference dinner on Thursday evening, 2nd February 2023. For this all delegates will go by coach to the city centre of Berlin for an enjoyable evening. The venue of the conference dinner, the revolving restaurant of the Berlin TV Tower allows you to see all of Berlin while being seated comfortably at the dinner table.

And in the morning following the conference the Berlin Brandenburg Airport company invites all delegates to a complimentary tour of the new airport.
